To whom it may concern:

Helen Robinett was one of three keynote speakers at our Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre fundraiser in June 2005.

She was funny, articulate and thoroughly informative. All of our guests raved about her presentation and we would definitely love to have her at future events!

We all left the day feeling a bit better about ourselves, and much more confident dressers. Her knowledge of style and personal presentation was brilliant, and she was very warm and approachable.

Thanks Helen!
